

INVITATION

Severn Project 2009 • Launch

'Inspiring creativity in communities along the River Severn'

RECEPTION • You are cordially invited to join the Severn Project partnership for our launch reception - hosted by the Roses Theatre in Tewkesbury at 6pm on 20th June. Alice Oswald the award winning poet whose poem for many voices 'A Sleepwalk on the Severn' inspired this multi-arts project, will be joining us to talk about her work and give away signed copies of her book. For direction see: www.roses theatre.org

PERFORMANCE • The reception will be followed by a performance of 'Sleepwalk' by TaurusVoice Theatre Company at 7pm. Please e-mail or telephone Lori Davies if you would like complimentary ticket/s for the show.

OUTDOOR SPECTACLE • After the show there are outdoor performances on the riverbank in Victoria Gardens - featuring street theatre, dance and choral singing - directed by Desperate Men Theatre Company with a fiery finale created by Pa-Boom! Severn Project is part of the QUEST programme – seven journeys through the unique landscapes of the South West.

Helen Owen • Arts Development Officer, Gloucestershire County Council

www.severnproject.com

RSVP by Friday 12th June

Please email or telephone to accept this invitation to the launch reception, to reserve 1 or 2 complimentary tickets for the 7pm performance of 'Sleepwalk', or to request extra copies of Severn Project's programme.

We look forward to seeing you.

Please reply to
E: Lori.davies@gloucestershire.gov.uk
Tel: 01452 544049

